

Be Curious!

Be Curious vs. Critical

Remain curious and open to learning about the man you are with. Listen for things you want to hear. Also listen for what you DON'T want to hear. Catch the red flags while showing up open.

Curious questions begin with these words:

WHO

WHAT

WHEN

WHERE

HOW

What about WHY?

Any time you ask a question beginning with one of these words, you invite the man to share more details about his life story.

If you are stumped and don't know what to ask next, you can ALWAYS say, "Tell me more." "Tell me more about..."

Remember to be interested on a date - not interesting.

Listen for reasons to keep dating him, not only what you don't want.

Approach the date with curiosity, wonder and interest.

Over-sharing vs. being vulnerable. What is the difference?
